United States District Court

Southern District of New York

40 Foley Square, Room 2103

Re: Chakma, et al. v. Sushi Katsuei, Inc, et al.

Case No. 1:23-cv-07804-KPF

Dear Judge Failla:

This office represents Defendants in the above referenced matter. I write, with Plaintiffs' consent, to request the Court to adjourn the mediation conference to a later date.

On September 26, 2023, the Court entered a mediation referral Order. (Dkt No. 11). Since then, a mediator was assigned to the case and the Parties exchanged the relevant documents, including the documents reflecting the number of hours Plaintiffs worked and the amount of compensation that they received. During the course of exchanging the Parties' documents for the purpose of the mediation, Parties were unable to agree on the scope of the mediation as Plaintiffs wish to participate in the mediation to resolve the claims class/collective-wide while Defendants wish to participate in the mediation to resolve the class/collective representative plaintiffs' claims at this moment.

As such, the Parties respectfully request that the Court adjourn the mediation to a later date and schedule an initial conference in this matter. In addition, the Parties respectfully request that the initial conference be held via teleconference or videoconference.

We thank the Court for its time and continued attention to this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,
